Once again we send you greetings, hoping that the Lord Jesus Christ is blessing you and giving you much wonderful peace and sufficient grace.

This furlough has been rather refreshing and encouraging to continue reaching souls for Christ in Mexico and the uttermost. I was able to fly to Mexico 4 times to oversee the ministries we have started and also to take care of legal matters, such as vehicles we drive in Mexico and housing.

We are working with the legal matters to have one property transferred to our name. This property was given as a result of soul winning, and we intend to use this property to start a new ministry to preach the Gospel in a different area of the city of Celaya. Once we complete the process, we will begin remodeling to have a decent place for preaching and teaching God's Word. I estimate that we will need about US $10000 to have this project completed.

Recently my wife was admitted to the hospital for her gallbladder. Thank God, it was only this minor problem and not a problem with the appendix.

Thank you for praying for us and for giving to the greatest cause I know - missions.
