It was 25 years ago that we were accepted as BIMl missionary candidates! We want to express our gratitude to each person who works in the BIMl Home office for their unfailing help and encouragement all these many years.

Blessings upon blessings! A faithful man in our church, Matthan Hall, and I take Thursdays to knock 150 doors each week. Since we started this late January, we have missed very few Thursdays doing so. I always end the day with a bit of a crispy sunburn, but it has been well worth it. Bro. Matt met and invited Kathy-Ann Small in February. She and her children were already saved and looking for a church. They have become very faithful, and she goes to the hospital soul winning with us each Tuesday. Recently her son Kristian left his house without his mother's permission. He was gone for sometime. After quite a while he came home, and his mom was quite perturbed until he told her the reason he left. He told her that he went to walk with God, and along the way, he found a bench and he and God just talked. That made for a very happy mom!

God has been so good lately. The church is full both with people and with joy. We have been praying for revival and the outpouring of the Spirit for years. We are seeing more fruits of His working in our midst. Thank you for your prayers and support!
