Newsletter Gleanings from Dave Solt in England:

We are excited to report Mary Beth is back on track. Thanks for everyone who has prayed for her recovery.

We are close to seeing 100 souls saved this year. We have 76 who have been saved; 769 have trusted Christ since we came to the Northwest of England in 2008. Great days are coming as we move forward in our ministry. Canvassing our area is going well, and thousands of Gospel tracts have been distributed.

We have been blessed to have a man in our church who played for our city's professional soccer team. Nearly every weekend Dave and I are out on Saturdays, witnessing to the shoppers on the streets. It's an encouragement to have him along and a joy that he shares our soul-winning fervor! Recently we set up a book table, and Dave brought some pictures of his days as a soccer player. People stopped by the table to meet Dave, and we had great discussions. Dave has said that leading souls to Jesus is greater than making a "hat trick" soccer goal!

Our son Daniel has surrendered to be a missionary and would like to serve in England. Praise the Lord!
