Newsletter Gleanings from Peter Morris in Kenya:

We continue to work with national pastors and become part of their lives and they allow us to mentor them.

Fred Kambuni, a young man with his first child trying to build a new church in Nairobi, recently contracts an eye infection and it looked as though he was going to lose the sight in his eye until we were able to get him to an eye specialist. He is now doing much better. Praise the Lord!

Pastor Phiiph (correct spelling) planted an Independent Baptist Church just north of Nairobi and has managed to raise about half of what he needs for a temporary church building. His church is now under the cover of our registered church in Kenya, ensuring the authorities cannot come in and close his ministry down.

Pastor John Nkome has worked tirelessly for days to amend our constitution to enable us to comply with government regulations concerning the registration of any churches we may plant.

Thank you for partnering with us in our endeavor to lead East Africa to Christ.
