Newsletter Gleanings from Carlos Donate in Guatemala:

December here at Bible Baptist Mission of Colinas was awesome! We painted the church, fixed vehicles, repaired pews, and did electrical work. We also conducted several Christmas church fellowships, including a ladies' meeting. There were many decisions made amongst the ladies of our churches, but there were also several people who made decisions for salvation.

On a very early Sunday morning of the 25th, we were also able to take the Word of God to a rehab center for recovering drug addicts and alcoholics. After singing hymns, and after preaching and giving an invitation, there were 21 decisions made for Christ. We praise God that they invited us to keep coming to teach them and encourage them. We also gave each person a bag of Guatemalan apples and a New Testament. Pray as we open a special new ministry this year for the down and out. There is definitely hope in Christ for these dear folk.

On Sunday evening of the 25th, a few like-minded churches came together for a Sunday evening of food and fellowship. I preached on "fleeing for God". There are things we definitely need to flee from in 2017 such as the wrath of God, worldliness and materialism. Thank you for your interest in this ministry.
