Newsletter Gleanings from Alberto Perez in Ecuador:

We give God the glory for all He has allowed us to accomplish in His harvest: souls saved, baptized, and added to the local church. We give Him thanks for growing Christians and the churches established in Esmeraldas and Tonsupa, and we are anxious to see His mighty power as we start another work.

We sadly report to you that although our desire was to go to Galapagos, God has shown us different plans. The Galapagos Project is still moving forward with our friend and co-servant, Pastor Franco Loyola, but we have moved to another city called Loja. Loja is located four hours from the Peru border and has a population of 235,000 souls. It is known as one of the most idolatrous places in Ecuador, but we are confident that, as God has called us here, God will work in the hearts of the people. We moved to Loja on 12/27/16 and in the short time we have been here we have already seen God working. We believe Mario & Gladis, with their family, will join our church soon. Please pray for them.

God has been so good to give me many friends in the ministry and they have been very helpful in the starting of this new work.
