in Honduras:

It sure feels great to be back in Honduras. We have spent our time catching up on and reconnecting with our people. The church has done well, but a church definitely needs a pastor. Please pray that God will give us wisdom.

One of the blessings we got while we were in the States was our home church voted to give us $8,500 to finish paying off our property. We are in the process of finishing up the paperwork. Thank God for His provision for us!

We are busy making plans to start construction on our temple. A church gave us $2,000; and a friend gave us $500 toward the construction of the church building. It will cost about $50,000, but we are going to start and trust God to provide as we go.

God continues to bless soul-winning. We have seen 13 visitors come to our services in the first three weeks of January. A couple that had visited our church a few times before has been coming faithfully. I started discipleship classes with them. Please pray for Rafael and his wife Kelly.

Our family is doing fine. Thanks for your prayers and support.
