Newsletter Gleanings from The Yetzer Family missionaries to Italy:

Recently I was reading a prayer letter from the Maulucci family in Bulgaria, and something reckoned very true. I repeat it here with his permission: “When one trusts Christ as his personal Savior in Italy, he is not simply making a conscientious choice to trust Christ. He simultaneously rejects, on some level, his patriotism, his ethnicity, his family, and his history.” Although living in Italy we experience firsthand the rejection of the gospel, sometimes I forget that it is not like this everywhere in the world. While out soul swimming recently, an elderly Italian lady told me that we needed to consume Christ’s body and blood in order to be saved. On the contrary, two African refugees recently called on Christ for salvation. Please pray that our witness would be received and that people would choose a relationship with God over everything else.

Our third child, Charlotte, was born March 22, 2017. Mother and daughter are doing well. Please pray for their continued health and strength.

Thank you for your prayers and support.
