Newsletter Gleanings from Mshama Kinyonga, missionary to Tanzania:

“O give thanks unto the Lord for He is good...” (Ps. 107:1). We do serve a mighty and loving God. It’s a spiritual battle every day, but these past few months, it has seemed to be more noticeable. We take our hope and strength from God’s Word and move forward. We are grateful to be here and appreciate your support.

When we left on furlough in August we were averaging 180 people. Since we came back in January, we have been averaging 230. We are so excited that God is bringing the increase with many new families and folks we can just love on. With these people come marriages, and the devil hates it when married couples get saved, come to church, and start growing. Please pray for the marriages here at Grace Baptist Church. Pray that the folks here will stay strong and fight Satan’s blows with the Word of God and remain teachable. Witchcraft here is big and people are dabbling in it. We know that God is more powerful than that, but it takes wisdom and strength to deal with it.

We are grateful for the open door that is still here for soul winning. People still listen and take time to know the real truth. We have had a long rainy season. Many stay inside to remain warm and dry. The first warm, sunny day came and everyone was out. We were witnessing in our new bus route area. We had over 60 folks out with 71 trusting in Christ!
