Newsletter Gleanings from Mshama Kinyonga, missionary to Tanzania.

We are doing well here in Morogoro, Tanzania. "Winter" here, at 65 degrees, is continuing; the cooler mornings here are refreshing. When the sun comes out it drains all your energy.

I wanted to start more Saturday Bible Clubs. I had been praying about it for a while. I wanted folks who had a heart for it and were willing to do it. I didn't say anything to anyone; I just prayed that at the right time, folks who wanted to start one would let me know. Praise the Lord! Three families came to me and said that they felt it was time for them to start a Bible Club at their house. They had been getting "taught", and now it was time for them to step out. It's encouraging to see growth.

Speaking of growth, we started another new bus route in the area called Mikese. It's quite a distance away from our church; however, the people were interested, so we sent a van out there. The first Sunday we had 15 riders.

We just celebrated our 3-Year Anniversary. We had 580 people, over 50 first-time visitors, and 45 trusting Christ. What a great God we serve!
