Newsletter Gleanings from The Vest Family in Asia.

Since our last letter, I had to fly back to the U.S. for my youngest brother Scott's funeral. He was only 62 and had just remarried 16 months prior. I was able to preach a memorial service, and 6 precious friends of his received Christ as Savior.

Just a few days after returning from the U.S., Kay, Brianna and I traveled 11 hours to the island of Mindoro to hold a pastors' conference. It was amazing, and most of the 45 pastors and workers said we were such a help and blessing to them.

When talking to Pastor Hyme I found out that he was the eldest of 9 children. Mangyan tradition was that the mother always killed the firstborn by hanging so that those born after would live healthy lives. For a reason known only to God, Hyme's mother chose not to take his life. God allowed a surrendered young preacher to reach him with the Gospel. Today he pastors one of 4 tribal churches started by Messiah Baptist Church. What a pleasure it is to represent you to the people in Asia!
